

Autism friendly libraries

Inclusive and sensory friendly libraries, nationwide

Dimensions supports autism friendly libraries, making a world of books accessible for more people.

At autism friendly libraries:

- Staff are trained in autism awareness
- Autism friendly posters will be prominent
- You can move around and make noise (please supervise children and avoid running)
- Social stories and library layout maps are available to download
- There may be quiet spaces to wind down, and a range of other adaptations
- Special autism friendly sessions may be available
- You can enjoy this inclusive environment with friends or family.
