are great!

easy read

This booklet is all about How Dimensions supports you to share a Compliment

This booklet has information in easy read words and pictures and is linked to a policy. Dimensions Compliments Policy.

Policy: An important document that tells support teams about the rules to do their jobs well and to keep people safe.

This booklet is for you and your support team; to help you understand the rules.

If support teams are not following the rules, you can tell your locality manager, a family member or a friend, who can speak up with or for you.

Or you can make a complaint. To find out how to make a complaint, please ask for the; How Dimensions supports you to make a complaint or raise a concern.

How to share a compliment

A compliment is a way of saying you are really happy about something Dimensions or a member of your support team has done.

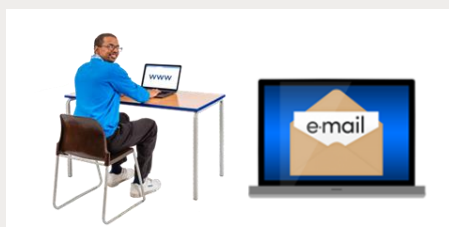

It might mean that they have done something extra special and you want other people to know about it.

Use this form to tell us about your compliment.

If you need help you can ask a member of your support team, a family member, or an advocate. An advocate is: someone who speaks up for you.

You can complete the form in this document, you can complete the form online. You can also email the compliments inbox.

Please write your compliment in the boxes below. If you need to use more paper, you can. Then send pages 4, 5 and 6 to the address provided.

This is the compliments form.

Better Lives for More People

Dimensions supports adults with learning disabilities, autistic people, individuals with complex health or forensic needs, and those with a history of behaviours of distress.

The people we support and their families are at the heart of everything we do. We want every person we support to have a great, ordinary, active life as part of their local community.
